

Reno Tecmo League Draft 2015

September 3, 2015

ENTRY FEE: $20

ROSTER

The snake-order draft will consist of eight rounds. At the draft, each owner will choose an NFL team in the first round. This is each owner's "base" team, which provides his defense, offensive line, kickers, and offensive backups. Then he will decide which, if any, player he will cut from his defense or offensive line (optional). The salary of the released player will then be added back to the team's salary cap and that vacant position on defense or offensive line must then be filled by an upgraded player at some point during the draft. Each round of the draft after the first round is used to complete your starting offensive roster and the one optional defensive/offensive line player, but each owner is confined by his team's salary cap.

Your starting offense comprises one QB, one RB, two WRs, one TE, and a Flexback, which can be either a RB or a WR. If you get toward the end of the draft and realize that you don't have enough money to fill all your open roster spots, then you must return your highest paid player back to the draft pool and then wait until the draft is over to finish drafting your team.

The Super Bowl winner from the previous season loses $1 million off his salary cap before the draft begins, and the Super Bowl runner-up loses $0.5 million. These penalties are progressive and regressive, meaning, for example, a repeat Super Bowl winner would lose $2 million off his salary cap for the next season, but if he didn't even make it to the Super Bowl in that third season, his salary cap penalty would be peeled back to just $1 million. This season, that means Scott's salary cap will be reduced by $3 million, as a three-peat Super Bowl winner, and Satter's salary cap will be reduced by $1 million, as a repeat runner-up.

Before the draft, each owner will choose where he wants to be positioned in the draft order once his name is chosen semi-randomly, from two "lotteries." The first lottery will include all owners who didn't make the playoffs in the previous season. The next lottery includes all owners who made the playoffs but not the Super Bowl. The next owner to choose will be the Super Bowl runner-up and then the Super Bowl winner must take whatever draft slot remains. For the 2015 season, these are the lottery pools:

First Lottery (no playoffs): Beast, Aaron, Scotty (new), Kyle (new)

Second Lottery (playoffs, but no Super Bowl): Toby, Cuban, Reese, Blake

...then Satter (Super Bowl runner-up) and then Youmans (Super Bowl winner)

PRIZE POOL

With 10 teams for this season and $200 in the pool, the payouts will be $120/$50/$20/$10 for Super Bowl winner, runner-up, NFL MVP, and other-conference MVP. Any unclaimed prize money will be rolled over into next season's pool.

The league MVP is determined by the following formula based on regular season stats:

$\text{Rush Yds} + (\text{Rush TDs} \times 25) + (\text{Rush Avg} \times 75) + \text{Rec Yds} + (\text{Rec TDs} \times 50) + (\text{Rec Avg} \times 25) + (\text{Pass Yds}/1.5) + ((\text{Pass TDs} - \text{INTs})(40)) + (\text{Pass Avg} \times 50) + (\text{TeamWin\%} \times 1.5)$

Once the season starts, each owner personally plays his games against the computer. If the owner doesn't show up, the computer will play for him. If two humans match up for a game, then they will play each other in "coach" mode, unless both owners agree to play MAN vs. MAN.

SEASON

All games will be played at the Wal on Wednesday nights, starting at 9pm. Typically, two weeks of the NFL season will be played each Wednesday.

The Super Bowl will be played in Preseason mode if the game is MAN vs. MAN. The higher seeded team in the conference championship games will be Player 1, but a coin flip will determine Player 1 for the Super Bowl. SPECIAL RULE: If a player is injured in Preseason mode, then a coin flip will determine whether he returns for the Super Bowl. If an owner's player is injured in Season mode during a simulated game (to ensure he plays a juiced computer in the Super Bowl), then we'll re-simulate that game until he enters the Super Bowl with the correct roster.

IN-GAME

On offense, you may not play anyone out of position unless injuries force it. Each player's official position is listed on his personal profile page. One exception: anyone may play WR. This means you cannot handoff the ball to any player classified as a WR or TE. Only players classified as RB's or QB's may run the ball out of the backfield.

The players you draft must comprise your starting lineup for each game, as health allows.

On defense, if you choose a defensive lineman to control, you cannot blitz him through any gap. That means you have to go around the tackle to blitz the backfield or engage with an offensive lineman first.
